OUR COUNTRY IS THE WORLD--OUR

BOSTON, FRIDAY,

OCTOBER 4, 1844.

THE LIBERATOR

JAMES K. POLK AND HENRY CLAY!!

'These be thy gods, O Israel!'

WE devote a considerable portion of our present number to an authentic and official presentation of the views of the rival Whig and Democratic candidates for the Presidency of the United States, on the great question of HUMAN RIGHTS. In view of it, what can be said of those who are shouting the praises of these twin-monsters of tyranny, and sparing no pains to secure their election, but that in this matter they are led captive by Satan at his will, and acting a most wicked and impious part?

From the Pennsylvania Freeman.

At the great Anti-Slavery Convention held at London in June, 1840, an Address was prepared and ordered to be directed to the respective Governors of the different slaveholding States of the American Union. It is in reply to this Address, that the following cavalier-like letter of Gov. Polk, of Tennessee, was written.

From the Nashville Union.

Real Cause of Alarm.

We have seen in the office of the Secretary of State, two communications from the World's Convention of Abolitionists, under the seal of the British and Foreign Anti-Slavery Society, one of them

FRANKED BY S. M. GATES, A WHIG MEM-BER OF CONGRESS, from New-York, and both addressed to 'His Excellency, James K. Polk, Governor of the State of Tennessee.' They are IN-CENDIARY, or we would lay them before the public. We have permission, however, to publish the letter of the Governor in reply to Gates, which is as follows:

NASHVILLE, (Tenn.) Oct. 24, 1840.

To THE HONORABLE S. M. GATES,

Member of Congress from the State of N. Y.:

Sir—I have received, through the post office, a communication, under your official frank as a member of Congress, containing certain proceedings of a body of men styling themselves 'A Convention of the friends of the negro, assembled from various parts of the world, convened for the purpose of promoting the immediate, entire and universal abolition of slavery and the slave trade.' This Convention, it appears, was held at London in the month of June last. The envelope covering the communication, which comes to me under your frank, is marked with the city of New-York—it is sealed with a stamp bearing the pictorial representation of a person in an imploring attitude, and encircled with the words, 'British and Foreign Anti-Slavery Society.' The communication itself contains an 'appeal to the Governor of Tennessee to employ all the influence and power with which Divine Providence has entrusted him, to secure immediate and unconditional liberty
